DELEGATE VIRGIL G. THORNTON

Virginia House of Delegates, 86th District

BIOGRAPHY

Delegate Virgil G. Thornton, Sr. is a native of Virginia. He has been happily married for 35 years to Dr. Michelle-Boone Thornton, a college professor. A proud father of twin daughters and one son, he is a Certified Foster and Respite Care Parent, a member of the Hampton Roads Committee of 200 Plus Men mentoring and education, and a certified member of the John C. Maxwell Leadership, Speaking and Coaching Group. During his time as a General Manager of Dodge, Infiniti, and Lexus dealerships in Alabama and Virginia and small business owner in the food service and the recording industry, he led several teams to deliver high-quality results. Prior to entering the automotive industry, Delegate Thornton worked as a nuclear technician at Newport News Shipbuilding. Outside of his service as the Delegate for HD-86, he currently serves as President of CMV Communicators LLC, which provides public speaking, leadership training, and personal development services.
